Saturday 28 February 2026

Buckfast Abbey, South Devon

Choral Splendour

Guest Conductor Caius Lee

We celebrate the heyday of English church music with a programme chosen to complement the recent Alan Bennett film The Choral, about a 1916 production of Elgar's The Dream of Gerontius. Enjoy singing masterpieces from the Victorian and Edwardian era, including music by Elgar, Parry and Bairstow accompanied by the Ruffatti organ in the Abbey's superb acoustic.

Supper Buckfast Abbey Conference Centre Restaurant

Evening you will be part of a concert performance in The Abbey.

Caius is one of the upcoming leading lights in choral music, a very exciting and charismatic young conductor, much in demand.

He was organ scholar at St Catharine's Cambridge during which time he founded The Florence International Singing Programme. He is now Director of Music at Worcester College, Oxford, and is the youngest DoM of any UK cathedral or Oxbridge College.

Package price for participants £55.00 (£50 for DCC Members) included in package : morning and afternoon rehearsals, music hire, arrival and mid morning refreshments, pre-concert two course supper, and evening concert in The Abbey.

Concert tickets £15.00 available from The Abbey
